Why People Abuse

Scenario 1
Kim-Lee and Michael have just started dating. Michael doesn’t know all of Kim-Lee’s friends. As he walks out of school in the afternoon, he sees Kim-Lee talking to Jon. It looks like a private conversation and Kim-Lee is laughing. Michael thinks she is flirting and becomes angry. He walks over to Kim-Lee, puts his arm around her, and says, “Let’s go,” as he pulls her away. Kim-Lee tries to introduce Jon to Michael, but Michael cuts her off, saying, “I said, let’s go now!” Michael drags Kim-Lee away. Kim-Lee tries to explain that Jon is her older brother’s best friend. They’ve known each other since they were small children. She wasn’t flirting. Michael says he won’t have his girlfriend embarrassing him in front of the entire school by talking to other guys. Later that evening, Michael goes to Kim-Lee’s house with a dozen roses and tells her that he loves her very much. That’s why it drives him crazy when she talks to other guys.

Mario gives her a kiss and then asks if she’s going to change before they go out. Cassie almost cries. She explains that she bought this outfit just for their date tonight. Mario sighs, pats her on the shoulder, and says, “Cassie, no one else would ever put up with you. I don’t know why I love you so much. I have to do everything for you.” Then he goes up to Cassie’s room and chooses a different outfit.

Miley and Chris have been dating for several months. They’ve been having a number of disagreements lately. Chris is angry and frustrated. Things between them don’t seem like they’ll ever get better. Chris has been confiding in a friend, Carrie. Chris's friendship with Carrie makes Miley jealous, causing even more fights. Last week, Chris told Miley that this relationship might not work. Miley said that if he would stop flirting and cheating with Carrie, the fighting would stop and they could be happy again. Chris said Carrie was just a friend, but it didn’t really matter because if they weren’t fighting about Miley’s jealousy, they were fighting about something else. That night, Miley called Chris. She was crying and saying things like, “I need you and I couldn’t stand to lose you to someone else. You are the best part of my life. If you break up with me, I’ll hurt myself.” Since then, Miley has called and sent texts to Chris, saying, “I’ll hurt myself if you leave me.” Chris feels trapped.

How Stereotyping Leads to Abuse

Scenario 1
Jason invited several of his friends and his girlfriend, Megan, to his house to watch movies on Friday night. Jason asked Megan if she would put out some chips and drinks for everyone. She said that she didn’t mind. When Jason’s friends arrived, they all sat down to watch movies. When someone finished a drink or when the bowl of chips was empty, Jason would tell Megan to go to the kitchen for refills. When this happened for the third time, Megan said that she wouldn’t be their waitress. She wanted to watch the movie and they could help themselves to the food in the kitchen if they wanted it. Jason got angry. He ordered Megan to get his friends’ drinks. When she refused, Jason hit her across the face and pulled her into the kitchen. Jason’s friends have seen Jason and Megan fight like this many times.

Then, however, she asked where the rest of her gifts were. When Tyrone said that he just got the iTunes gift card for her birthday present, Nicole got angry. She started screaming at him. She said that she expected more than a stupid gift card for her birthday, and she threw the gift card across the room.

Section 3: How We Feel and How We Deal
Four SAFE Skills

Stay calm.
1. Use calming strategies to stay cool and collected.

Ask questions.
1. Ask honest and open-ended questions to better understand the situation.
2. Don’t jump to conclusions.
3. After listening to answers, you may realize that the conflict was all a misunderstanding.

Find out feelings.
1. Find out how the other person feels about the situation that is causing the disagreement.
2. Express your own feelings—be honest and specific, referring to the situation and what about it upsets you.
3. Use “I” statements when expressing your feelings (I feel _____ when you_____).

Exchange ideas for a possible solution.
1. With all of this information, suggest possible solutions.
2. Talk about which ones work best for the two of you.
Scenarios:
LaToya and Marcus met in April when they were both in 8th grade and have been dating for about six months. Throughout the summer the two teens were inseparable. They went swimming at the pool and walking in the park. They went to the mall and to the movies. When they were apart, they talked on the phone, sent texts back and forth, and left Facebook messages for each other. Both LaToya and Marcus agreed that it was the best summer they had ever had.

Now, it’s the fall and they’re beginning high school. LaToya is going to be a freshman cheerleader.

Marcus is very proud of her. It’s an honor to be on the squad. Because their high school cheerleading squad wins national awards every year. LaToya has been working very hard all week. After school she has cheerleading practice for two hours. However, today is Friday and the coach let them go early. She ran home and called Marcus to ask him to come over. She was eager to see him, as she hadn’t spent much time with him this week. Marcus was happy she had gotten off early as well and went to LaToya’s house right away.

Marcus (M) LaToya (L)

M: (Knocks on the door)

L: (Answers the door and sees Marcus) Oh, I’m so glad to see you. I have so much to tell you. (They walk into the house together and sit down.)

M: I haven’t seen you since school has started. You’re too busy.

L: Oh, I know I’m busy. I have no time. I do miss you, but I love cheerleading. Marcus, it’s so much fun. I’m learning so much. I can’t wait until the first football game when you can come and watch me. You’re going to be so proud.

M: I’m already proud of you.

L: But just wait until you see me. I’m paired up with Darnell. He’s so strong. I’m learning to balance in his hands. I feel so tall up there.

M: Darnell?

L: Yeah, the freshman squad has three male cheerleaders this year. The squad can do a lot more stunts with them. They’re so much stronger than the girls and can lift us up and stuff.

M: Well, I’m pretty strong; maybe I should join the cheerleading squad.

L: (Laughs) Oh Marcus, you have to be a lot more than strong to be a cheerleader. Darnell has been a gymnast since he was five years old. He won a national award last year. That’s why it amazes me that he thinks I’m such a good cheerleader. He’s the one who’s amazing.

SESSION 4: Achieving Equality Through Communication
Identifying Communication

M: (Raising his voice) Darnell, Darnell, Darnell! I’m sick of hearing about Darnell. If you like him so much why don’t you date him?

L: (Wants to yell back at him, but instead takes a deep breath and pauses a minute. She looks carefully at Marcus.) I don’t understand why you’re so mad?

M: (Shouting) Why am I mad? (Gets up from his chair) Are you kidding me? You’re letting some other guy touch you, put his hands on you.

L: (Takes another deep breath and is careful not to raise her voice) Marcus, don’t you trust me? Being a cheerleader is important to me and you’ve always supported me. Why are you freaking out?

M: Because all you have done since I walked in the door is talk about Darnell. What about me? I’m your boyfriend.

L: Yes, you’re my boyfriend. What do you mean by “What about me?” Do you feel like I don’t pay enough attention to you?

M: Well, no. I mean yes. Well, I don’t know. I never felt like that during the summer, but since school has started you’ve been so busy I wonder if you’re still interested in me.

L: Yes, of course. I’m not interested in dating Darnell or anyone else. We just hang out at cheerleading practice. I know that I’ve been busy.

M: I know. But I wish things wouldn’t have changed.

L: Me too. But I don’t want to stop cheerleading. What can we do?

M: Are you always going to get out early on Fridays?

L: No, but I can see you in the evenings on Fridays and over the weekend.

M: Yeah, and during the week we have Facebook.

L: Definitely. Maybe you could come over after dinner sometimes, or even have dinner with us.

M: Look, LaToya, I’m sorry I got so mad.
Identifying Conflict Resolution

Conflict Scenario 1
Character 1: Jamie and Character 2: Taylor

Jamie: You’ve been dating Taylor for five months. You have been spending a lot of time together and when you are not together, you like to keep in touch via text messaging. You like to know what Taylor is up to and who he is with. Things are getting more serious and you feel that Taylor should let you read his text messages and Facebook page. Recently, the two of you have talked about sending each other nude pictures. Taylor has some friends who send nude pictures to their girlfriends/boyfriends and think this could be fun for you two to try, but you don’t think this is a good idea.

Taylor: You’ve been dating Jamie for five months. You really like her, but she constantly sends text messages asking where you are and who you are with. You feel like you could use a little bit of space. When the two of you were hanging out one evening you found her reading through your Facebook page. She told you she did not like that you were sending messages to another girl in your class and asked you not to do it anymore. You don’t have anything to hide from Jamie, but you were not comfortable with her reading your private messages.

Questions:

When Liam goes to pick up Keshia, he mentions his friends invited him to a basketball game. At the party he ignores Keshia and texts his friends the entire time.

1. How could Taylor tell Jamie that she is texting him too much?

2. What should Taylor tell Jamie to let her know that he is not comfortable with her reading through his private messages?

3. What should Jamie do since she doesn’t think sending nude pictures to Taylor is a good idea?

4. Could they have come to a compromise before the party?

SESSION 4: Achieving Equality Through Communication
Identifying Conflict Resolution

Conflict Scenario 2
Character 1: Mia and Character 2: Serena

Mia: You’ve been having problems with this one girl, Serena, at school. You think she doesn’t like you because you went out with one of her ex-boyfriends. You didn’t have more than four dates with the guy, but she seems jealous and is always rude to you. You just found out that she’s spreading rumors about you on Facebook. She’s saying that you skipped class to drink beer by the school fence. This rumor isn’t true. You’re extremely angry at this girl and decide to confront her.

Serena: There’s this girl, Mia, who you really don’t like. You think she’s trying to steal your boyfriend. You’ve been dating this guy for six months but have recently decided to “cool things off a bit” because you’ve been fighting a lot. You talked briefly about dating other people, but no decisions were made. Then, your boyfriend went out with Mia a few times. You always knew she was a flirt! You’re very jealous. You heard a rumor that Mia and some other students skipped class and were drinking beer by the school fence. You didn’t actually see them doing it but you’ve told the story to some other people and posted it on Facebook.

1. What should Mia have done differently?

Conflict Scenario 3
Character 1: Jammal and Character 2: Amara

Jammal: You’ve been dating Amara for a few weeks. She’s a lot of fun and beautiful as well. You know that all the other guys are jealous. Everyone says the two of you look great together. Today, when you walked down the hall, you saw her talking to a whole group of guys, just her and five or six guys. You got really angry. Don’t they know you are her boyfriend? Why would Amara want to talk to them anyway? You don’t understand why she didn’t come to find you to talk to in between classes. Now, it’s the evening. You usually call her at about this time. Tonight, however, you decide to go to her house because you want to talk to her in person. You’re feeling very jealous.

Amara: You’re at home in the evening, hoping Jammal will call soon. You’ve been dating Jammal for a couple of wonderful weeks. You really like the way your relationship has been going. You missed him in between classes today because you were talking to some friends. Your friends are really important to you and you always make time for them. You’ve seen some girls give up all their friends when they start dating someone; you’d never want to do that.

Friends Wheel

MAKE A SAFETY PLAN:
What had your friend done in the past to keep safe from the abuse? Is it working? Do they have a safe place to escape to if necessary?

GIVE HELP:
Know the resources in your community. Is there a hotline? What legal, medical, or counseling options are available?

TELL THE PERSON THEY DIDN'T DESERVE TO BE ABUSED:
No one deserves to be abused. You did not cause this abuse and it is NOT your fault.

LET YOUR FRIEND MAKE HIS/HER OWN DECISIONS:
Respect your friend's right to make a decision when he/she is ready to do so.

BELIEVE THE STORY:
Listen and believe your friend. Acknowledge his/her feelings and let your friend know he or she is not alone.
